

CROATIA VOYAGE

A one week luxury sailing adventure along the Dalmatian Coast of Croatia. We will embark from the historic city of Split to the islands of Vis, Hvar and Šolta. The package will include all food catered and prepared by our professional chef, a trained skipper with expert knowledge of the cruising grounds and a focus on safety without compromising fun. Explore ancient ruins of Roman Emperor Diocletian's Palace, discover an abandoned Yugoslavian submarine bunker, sail to the famous Blue Cave, and enjoy fresh Croatian cuisine and local Rakija.

OFFERED JUNE THROUGH SEPTEMBER

MARINA KASTELLA TO TROGIR

SATURDAY

The group should fly into Split, known for its Riva and the fortress like complex at its center, Diocletian's Palace. Upon arrival, meet at the marina for introductions and to get familiar with the yacht. This evening we'll have a sunset sail to the historical town of Trogir for a dinner of local fish and wine. Trogir is an enchanting ancient town and UNESCO world heritage site.

TROGIR TO KOMIŽA

SUNDAY

Today is a full day of sailing heading SW from Trogir to Komiža, a city on the west side of the island, Vis. Komiža is a quaint town, a typical Mediterranean village with beautiful beaches, narrow roads and houses intricately arranged around the harbor. On our way to Komiža we'll stop at the Blue Lagoon to swim and be in awe of the crystal-clear water of the Adriatic. Tonight, after dinner on board, grab a legendary gelato on the riva.

KOMIŽA TO VIS

MONDAY

One of many highlights for guests is the Blue Cave on the island of Biševo. Go cliff jumping, or ride the dinghy through the cave to take pictures of this amazing natural phenomenon. The afternoon will be spent sailing to Vis, which was for many years the military and naval headquarters of Tito's army and was closed to the public until 1989. Moor up at the wall in Vis to access the excellent restaurants, fortress, monastery and wineries. Tonight, we eat at Darko's, a legendary restaurant where there are only a handful tables and the food is cooked and prepared all day for the guests. A true taste of the Croatian culinary culture.

SAMPLE ITINERARY

VIS TO ŠČEDRO

TUESDAY

From Vis, we sail to the island of Šćedro, a protected nature park with many hidden coves and excellent anchorages. We will stop for a swim or two along the way to enjoy the natural beauty Croatia offers. Feel free to take the helm and practice your new sailing skills. Once we moor in the bay, grab the SUP for a paddle, take a snorkel or lay out on the deck. For dinner, we'll have a gourmet dinner on board.

ŠČEDRO TO HVAR

WEDNESDAY

Today we sail from Šćedro to Hvar. On the way, we'll visit the island of Paklinski Otoci. Our aim is an early afternoon arrival at Hvar in order to walk up to the castle, visit the town and see the sunset from the Hula Hula Beach Bar. Dinner is either on board or onshore depending on the group's preference.

HVAR TO ŠOLTA

THURSDAY

We have a lazy morning, perhaps with fresh chocolate croissants and smoothies before heading to the “third bay from the right”, a beautiful bay on the south end of Šolta for a swim. This afternoon we’ll sail to the west end of the island to a large natural bay. Here we’ll med-moor, a traditional mooring technique used in this region of the world. With water depths around 60ft right up until the rocks, when you’re there it’ll seem you can reach out and touch the shore. Dinner is in town on the top of the hill, featuring another beautiful sunset over looking the bay.

ŠOLTA TO SPLIT

FRIDAY

Today we make our way back to the marina. Before that however, we will enjoy our last morning onboard by swimming, relaxing and taking in the scenery. In the afternoon, once the boat is moored, we’ll head into visit the city of Split and celebrate our trip at one of the excellent restaurants located on the riva.

SATURDAY

Unfortunately, today we must leave our beloved yacht and head off to new adventures. It was a pleasure having you all onboard and we look forward to sailing with you again in the near future!
